After you have created your account, or if you already have one, simply send an email to bethany.wasden@us.army.mil, from your AKO email address, requesting access to the site. That way we will know your account is working and we have the correct spelling, etc.

We will add you to the website access list and send you a confirmation email.

Once you have been added to the access list go to:

2. Once you are at the website, there is an Add to Favs button. If you click it, you will have a link to the FRG website listed under My Favorites, then Pages, and then the 16th Engineer Battalion Family Readiness Group link.
